藍色【AI-IRO】

「藍」は古くから使用されてきた染料（植物）のひとつで世界最古の染料とも言われている。藍色とは濃い青色のこと。江戸時代になると藍染めとして庶民にも普及し、織物や衣服の染料として広く利用された。日本を代表する色として藍色を「ジャパンプルー」と呼ぶこともあり、現在ではサッカー日本代表のチームカラーにも用いられている。また藍色の中でも白っぽい「藍白」や薄めの「薄藍」、藍に錆が混じったような「藍錆」など様々な藍色がある。

“藍” (ai) is one of the dyes (plants) that have been used since ancient times and is said to be the oldest dye in the world. Indigo is a deep blue color. After 1603, it became popular among the common people as indigo dyeing, and was widely used as a dye for textiles and clothing. Indigo is sometimes called “Japan Blue” as it is the color that represents Japan, and is currently used as the team color of the Japan national soccer team. There are also a variety of indigo colors, including whitish “Aishiro” light “Usui Ai”, and “Aisabi”, which looks like indigo mixed with rust.
